

Local briefing

LAW

Two South Florida firms agree to merge on July 1

Two South Florida law firms focusing on community association, construction and real estate law will join forces, effective July 1.

Siegfried, Rivera, Lerner, De La Torre & Sobel PA of Coral Gables and Hyman & Mars LLP in Miami are joining to form Siegfried, Rivera, Hyman, Lerner, De La Torre, Mars & Sobel P.A.

They will be based in Siegfried's Coral Gables office.

The firm also will keep the former Siegfried offices in Plantation and West Palm Beach. The merger grows the firm to 40 attorneys.

The expanded firm will represent community associations in Broward, Palm Beach, Monroe and Miami-Dade counties. It also will continue to handle litigation and transactions for real estate developers and construction companies in South Florida.